From Leipſick, that the young Prince of Saxe-Weiſſenfelts, lately died at Weiſſenfelts.

From Madrid, that the Marquis de Vaugrenant will very ſpeedily take a Journey to Paris. That the Waſher-Woman, who ſtole the ſtrong Box of this Ambaſſador, is ſtill in Priſon; and that ſhe has declared in the ſeveral Examinations which ſhe has gone thro', That ſhe committed this Robbery at the Inſtigation of a Foreigner, who appear'd to be a Frenchman, who ſhe ſays gave her a conſiderable Sum of Money for effecting it, and at the ſame time aſſur'd her, that the Jewels were not what he wanted, and that a Way would be found out privately to reſtore them and the Strong Box to the Marquis de Vaugrenant.

It is alſo written from Madrid, that on the 3d Inſt. O. S. Don Philip Infante, who is a forward young Prince, and very promiſing, was appointed Admiral-General of Spain, and of all its Naval Forces, with all the Diſtinctions and Honours appertaining to that great Dignity.

BOSTON May 2.

We are inform'd from North-Carolina, that a Scooner, belonging to St. Chriſtophers, whereof was Maſter Capt. James Codner of this Town, ſunk upon the Bar, by the Violence of Seas beating over them their Boat was waſh'd away, ſo that they were deprived of the Hopes of ſaving their Lives in her; the Scooner was caſt upon the Shore & broke to Pieces, the Cargo entirely loſt, and all the People on board loſt their Lives; they all belong'd to this Town; the Maſter has left a ſorrowful Widow and one Child.

We are alſo inform'd from the ſame place, by a Gentleman lately come from thence, that it is very ſickly there, and that whilſt he was there, he ſaw a prodigious Quantity of Flies, which they call Pidgeon's-Neck Flies; that when they aroſe, he took them to be Birds, they being ſo large: It happening to blow hard the Wind carried them into the River, where they all died, but as they floated upon the Water they were drove aſhore, and that the Heat of the Sun had putrified them to that Degree that no perſon could paſs near that Place, the Air being infected with their Corruption: The Quantity was ſo great that 50 Carts could not have contain'd them.

We hear that a Letter was ſent laſt Friday to a Gentleman in this Town, directing him to leave 1000 l. in a certain Place, upon failure of which he was threatned to have his Houſe ſet on Fire; and if he made any ſtir in the Affair, and did not patiently ſubmit, they would alſo demoliſh his Warehouſe.

We hear from the Eaſtward, that Proviſions are very ſcarce there; and that ſome Perſons have actually died for want of Suſtenance: Many Cattle have died for want of Provender, and the few left alive are ſo weak, that they are unfit for any Labour.

South-Carolina.

By the Honourable

THOMAS BROUGHTON Eſq;

Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over this his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCAMATION.

WHEREAS the General Aſſembly of this Province ſtands prorogued to the Sixteenth Day of June Inſtant:

AND whereas the Buſineſs of the Publick is ſo far diſpatched, as not to make the Meeting of the ſaid General Aſſembly abſolutely neceſſary, eſpecially at this Seaſon of the Year, which requires the Attendance of moſt of the Members at their Plantations in the Country. I have therefore thought fit by and with the Advice and Conſent of His Majeſty's Honourable Council, further to prorogue the ſaid General Aſſembly to Tueſday the Fourth Day of October next, and the ſaid General Aſſembly is hereby accordingly prorogued to the ſaid Time.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of this His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, at Charles-Town the Seventh Day of June, in the Tenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, Annoque Domini 1737.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

THOMAS BROUGHTON.

By his Honour's Command,

JOHN HAMMERTON, Secr.

MR TIMOTHY,

Please to insert the following Lines in your Gazette, and in doing oblige your Friend, and humble Servant, &c.

AS blustering Winds disturb the calmest Sea
And all the Waters rave and mutiny:
The Billows loudly of the Wrong complain
And make an Insurrection in the Main,
The watery Troops insult the lofty Clouds
And heave themselves in huge rebellious Crowds;
Tho' the tumultuous rage our Wonder draws
The Water's not to blame, the Wind's the Cause;
And if the agressing Tempests please to cease,
The Inclination's all to Calms and Peace:
The Cause remov'd, the Grievance is redrest
And Nature glides the willing Waves to rest.
So Tyrants drive the People to Extreams,
And they that still stand out, it still inflames;
But when the End's obtained, they always shew
The honest Reasons of the Thing they do,
When Power's reduc'd the Motions always cease,
All tends to Settlements, and all to Peace.
